

New Opportunity

We're introducing something new to make the exhibit hall more interactive, energetic, and engaging than ever before.

When you sign up as a sponsor or exhibitor, you'll now have the opportunity to add on a special promotional activity: the "Rich Pitch".

Many of you who have attended conferences with AHMP over the years likely met our colleague, Richard Cartwright PE, CHMM, (IHMM, AHMP, APICS Fellow), who passed away last year. Rich had an infectious smile, unmatched charisma, and the rare gift of being a salesperson with the heart of a servant. In his honor, we're launching the "Rich Pitch" — a dynamic way to spotlight your organization while celebrating the spirit he brought to our community.

Step into the spotlight with a "Rich Pitch"

A UNIQUE NEW OPPORTUNITY AVAILABLE EXCLUSIVELY TO EXHIBITORS & SPONSORS

We'll host up to three stages and will release signup schedules as each stage fills — first come, first served. To reserve a Rich Pitch time slot, you must be a confirmed sponsor or exhibitor.

With expanded exhibit hall hours this year, there will be even more time for meaningful connections and engagement — plus plenty of opportunity for Rich Pitch presentations.

What is the Rich Pitch?

- A 10-minute presentation of your product or service
- A dedicated small stage in the exhibit hall
- Lapel mic and speakers to draw a crowd
- Scheduled every 15 minutes (with transition time built in)
- An opportunity to share what makes your offering unique and interact directly with attendees
